Cost: $310 for single occupancy, $260 for shared occupancy, $180 for commuters. A variety of lodging will be available to fit your preferences.

Each artist is asked to donate a piece of art work in support of CMRC for use in a future art fundraiser to be announced.

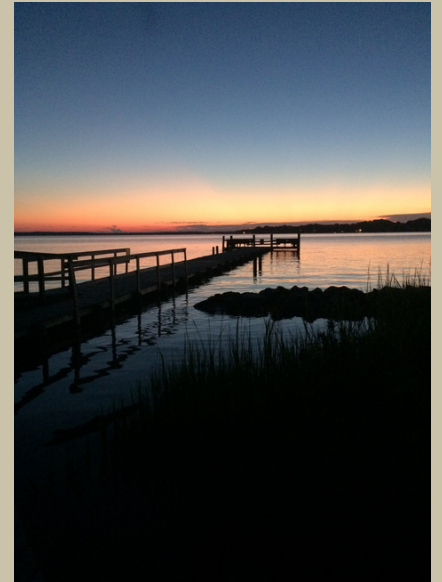

Artist Judy Kearns welcomes you to come to a relaxing, rejuvenating weekend painting in the natural beauty of the western shore of Maryland. This retreat is open to novice through professional artists. Camp Maria is a magical place where heaven and earth meet, and sky and water engage in an ever-changing dance with the light. One of the joys of plein air painting is to be emerged in this play of light, air and natural beauty.
